PLEASANT CHRISTMAS GATHERING.

An unusually pleasant gathering was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. MacMurtry, sr., in Cornwall, on Christmas day. Mr. and Mrs. MacMurtry entertained their eight sons and daughters and their respective families. There were thirty-three present at the gathering: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. James and family of Weybridge, Friend MacMurtry of No. Bennington, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jewett and family of Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Litchfield and family of Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. MacMurtry and family of Stuyvesant, N. Y., T. J. MacMurtry, jr., and Miss Elizabeth R. Foster of Beverly, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. William J. MacFee and family of Scotia, N. Y., and William MacMurtry and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. MacMurtry, sr.

Promptly at 12 o'clock a bountiful dinner was served. The seventeen grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. MacMurtry were seated at one table and were waited upon by Miss Ella Eells of Cornwall. As soon as dinner was over the whole company gathered in the East room, which was darkened and lighted by a cheery fire burning in the fire place. A large Christmas tree with heavily laden branches filled one corner of the room, from which William MacMurtry, assisted by some of the younger members of the family soon removed and distributed the gifts, and all were well remembered. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting and singing, and in the early evening the members of the family who lived near took their departure. One and all were unanimous in the decision that a most happy day had been spent, and one long to be remembered by all who were present.
